1. Introduction and Biblical Rational

In the Old and New Testaments, we see that God is concerned about the well-being of all people. More so, He reveals that He is particularly concerned about those who are vulnerable to mistreatment: the poor, the oppressed, the foreigner, the weak, the orphaned, and the widowed. God vows to be a defender of their cause and to love them.

Our attitude to the vulnerable, as towards all mankind, ought to be one defined by love. In 1 Corinthians 13 we learn what love is, "Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud. It does not dishonor others, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs. Love does not delight in evil but rejoices with the truth. It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres" (NIV).

As a community, we find God's call to love inconsistent with all forms of abusive behaviour – whether that abusive behaviour is physical, sexual, emotional, spiritual, neglectful, or harassing.

We at Heritage Park Alliance Church are committed to fostering a loving environment free from abuse in all its forms. We are committed to being deeply concerned about the wellbeing of all mankind in the same fashion and with the same passion as the God who creates, defends, and loves people.

2. Statement of Policy

It is the policy of Heritage Park Alliance Church to provide a consistently safe environment for children, youth and vulnerable adults and to maintain a zero tolerance for any abuse, harassment or neglect perpetrated by a church employee, officer, volunteer, member or adherent.

A vulnerable adult is any adult who by virtue of physical or mental disability, age, or mental or emotional state may be susceptible to one or more types of abuse as defined below.

The purposes of this policy is to:

- Prevent harm to the children, youth and vulnerable adults in our programs.
- To protect our staff and volunteers from false or wrongful allegations.

3. Definitions of Abuse

Physical Abuse

The Children's Aid Society in our region defines physical abuse in these terms:

"Anything a parent or caregiver does that results in physical harm to the child, or creates a genuine risk of harm to the child. Physical injury (ranging from minor bruises to severe fractures or death) can result from punching, beating, shaking, kicking, biting, throwing, stabbing, hitting, burning, choking, or otherwise harming a child. Such injury is considered abuse regardless of whether the caretaker intended to hurt the child. This would include hitting with objects such as a belt or wooden spoon, throwing objects and hitting in the head or face."¹

There is a strict zero-tolerance policy for any of the above-mentioned behaviour or behaviour of its kind. For further clarity, Heritage Park Alliance Church applies the same definition and zero-tolerance policy to interactions with youth and vulnerable adults.

Sexual Abuse

The Children's Aid Society in our region defines sexual abuse in these terms:

"When an adult engages a child in (or exposes a child to) any form of sexual activity. Children are not capable of giving informed consent under any circumstances. This would include indecent exposure, exposing a child to pornography, fondling a child's genitals, penetration, incest, rape, sodomy and exploitation through prostitution or producing pornographic materials".²

In the context of our church there is a zero-tolerance policy for any of the above- mentioned behaviours with either a child, a youth or a vulnerable adult in any of our programs.

² The Children's Aid Society of Windsor/Essex, 2007.

Emotional Abuse

The Children's Aid Society in our region defines emotional abuse in these terms:

“When a caregiver continually treats a child in a negative way that damages self esteem. This type of behaviour might include constant yelling, demeaning remarks, rejecting, ignoring or isolating the child. Emotional abuse can be difficult to identify, but some behavioural indicators include inhibition in play, severe depression and extreme attention seeking, withdrawal or aggressiveness. Children may complain of headaches, nausea or abdominal pain. As well, bed wetting that is non-medical in origin may be a physical sign of emotional abuse.”³

In the context of our church we have a zero-tolerance policy for any of the behaviours mentioned above, whether with a child, a youth or a vulnerable adult. Instead, we shall “encourage one another and build each other up” (1 Thessalonians 5:11a) recognizing the God-given value of every individual.

Spiritual Abuse

In the context of our church, Spiritual abuse refers to the use of manipulation, harassment, or public humiliation of an individual for the purpose of achieving personal, selfish, secular, or ideological goals not held by Heritage Park Alliance Church or its governing denomination. Such abuses, which may include, but are not limited to, using a position of Spiritual authority to coerce someone into a sexual act, will not be tolerated.

Child Neglect

The Children's Aid Society in our region defines neglect in these terms:

“Failure to provide for a child's basic needs necessary to sustain the life or health of the child, excluding failure caused primarily by financial inability unless relief services have been offered and refused. Basic needs include the following: food, shelter, appropriate clothing for the weather, medical, dental, and mental health care, educational needs and supervision by an appropriate caregiver”⁴.

In the context of our church we must ensure that adequate supervision by an appropriate caregiver is being maintained any time that a child, youth or vulnerable adult is within our care.

Harassment

Harassment is defined in the Canada's Human Right Code in the following terms:

“Engaging in a course of vexatious comment or conduct against a worker

³ The Children's Aid Society of Windsor/Essex, 2007.

in a workplace that is known or ought reasonably to be known to be unwelcome.”⁴

In the context of the church there is a zero-tolerance policy for any of the above-mentioned behaviours directed toward workers, members, or adherents of the church of any age.

Improper Touching/Discipline

In the context of the church the following shall be seen as “Improper Touch”:

- Kissing a child or coaxing a child to kiss you
- Engaging in extended hugging and/or tickling (hugging from the side is the preferred method)
- Touching a child in any area covered by a bathing suit (except in cases of diapering or assisting preschoolers while adhering to the washroom policies outlined in Section 8.1 of this document)
- Carrying older children or allowing them to sit in an adult’s lap
- Holding a child’s face when disciplining them
- Touching another individual in a manner that is known to or ought to be recognized as being unwelcome.

4. Reporting Structure

Hearing of an Allegation or Suspicion of Abuse

In order to protect our children, youth, and vulnerable adults, all allegations or suspicions of abuse will be taken seriously and reported to the proper authorities. Reporting will be done in conjunction with the ministry head and/or Senior Pastor.

Upon hearing of a potential abuse or allegation of abuse to a child, youth, or vulnerable adult, the volunteer in conjunction with the ministry leader will complete a Suspected Abuse Report Form and document all the pertinent information. The victim should not be asked any leading questions nor should the accused or any other parties be contacted at the time of completing the Suspected Abuse Report Form. All forms will be kept permanently unless directed otherwise by legal counsel.

Reporting an Allegation or Suspicion of Abuse

Once the Suspected Abuse Report Form is complete, the ministry leader, in conjunction with the volunteer, is required to report the matter to the Department of Social Services or the police. Reporting must be done orally by telephone or in person.

Anyone who knowingly fails to report in these circumstances is in violation of the law and may be found to have committed an offence and may be subject to disciplinary action. The Senior Pastor or designate must notify the church’s insurance provider and seek legal counsel upon hearing of a suspected case of abuse.

⁴ The Children’s Aid Society of Windsor/Essex, 2007.

The church will notify and work in conjunction with the C&MA leadership in any and all allegations or suspicions of abuse that may have happened in the context of church ministry. If the suspected abuse happened in the context of church ministry, a member of church leadership must notify the parents or caregivers of the victim.

Assessing and Investigating an Allegation or Suspicion of Abuse

No persons, including church leadership, are to assume the function of assessing, substantiating, or investigating the need for intervention or interpretation of suspected child abuse.

The church and its individuals must avoid interfering once a report of child abuse has been filed with the Department of Social Services or the police. The church should offer assistance in helping and supporting the investigation and the hurting child, youth, or vulnerable adult and their family or caregivers. The church should continue frequent communication and support with those who are suspected or guilty of child abuse as long as those persons exhibit a willingness to listen, change and look to Christ for help. This does not exclude the possibility for hurting individuals from receiving professional counseling.

5. Response Structure

Spiritual Response and Counsel for the Victim

The suspected victim will be treated with dignity and respect. During this process, involved volunteers and staff will be committed to prayer and strive to remain calm and hopeful.

Confidentiality of the suspected victim must be maintained at all times. Details of the suspected abuse will not be shared except as people are drawn into the response and investigation. Church leadership will offer individual care for the abuse victim and their family or caregivers and determine if professional assistance is needed.

Biblical Response and Discipline for the Accused or Convicted

The accused will be treated with dignity and respect. If the accused is paid staff, that person will be temporarily relieved of his or her duties until the investigation is completed.

Church leadership will exercise and practice church discipline as outlined in Matthew 18 and as stipulated by C&MA guidelines.

Church leadership will offer individual care for the accused and their family or caregivers and determine if professional assistance is needed.

Anyone accused of abuse to children, youth, or vulnerable adults will be prohibited from having access to this group until they are cleared of any and all charges. Clear written guidelines will be provided to the individual with restricted activities and areas of the church that they are not permitted to use.

Anyone convicted of abuse will be prohibited from having access to children, youth, or vulnerable adults. Church leadership may designate an individual to be responsible for and informed whenever the convicted person attends church activities and to accompany the convicted person while on church property. Clear written guidelines will be provided to the individual with restricted activities and areas of the church that the accused is not permitted to use.

Media Relations

A spokesperson will be designated to speak on behalf of the church to the media and to the public in relation to the suspected child abuse case. All inquiries will be directed to this person and comments should not be made by anyone else unless they are given permission to do so. Public statements must be well prepared and presented under the guidance of legal counsel.

Ongoing Investigations

Full cooperation will be given by all parties to civil authorities under the guidelines of legal counsel. At no time should church leadership or its individuals either engage in denial, minimization or blame, or admit responsibility, which could prejudice the case or cause increased liability to the church.

A confidential follow-up report with conclusions and action taken must be documented following a report of the abuse which should be kept permanently in a confidential file. Departments will inform others of any ongoing investigation strictly on a need- to-know basis.

6. Screening Procedures

Fire, Tornado, Dangerous Intruder, and Power Outage:

Fire:

- If the Fire alarm sounds, instruct and assist all attendees at your ministry to exit the building by the nearest safe exit and proceed to the common meeting area, which is the south-east parking lot (the corner of Sixth Concession and Alliance St.)
- Fire evacuation guides are posted in several locations throughout the building.
- The muster station is in the south-east parking lot (the corner of Sixth Concession and Alliance St.). Teachers and leaders will evacuate children and youth to the muster station where parents can meet them.

- In the event of an extended outage, certain ministry activities may need to be cancelled.
- Parents can pick up their children in the Centre and their youth in the Youth Centre.

Facility Modifications

Our facility is intentionally designed with glass panels in the doors to all classrooms, and meeting rooms and offices. All staff and volunteers should consciously avoid situations which put them alone with a child, youth, or vulnerable adult in a remote location not in public view.

8. Specific Operational Procedures

Section 8.1 Children’s Ministries

Section 8.2 Youth Ministries

8.1 Children's Ministries Operational Procedures

Ratios:

The following established adult to children ratios must be maintained within the classroom and on off-site trips:

- One ministry personnel for every 3 infants (birth to 17 months)
- One ministry personnel for every 4-5 toddlers and preschoolers
- One ministry personnel for every 7-10 elementary-age children

Rules Applying to the Supervision of all Children:

- Two Leaders – Our best practice will be to have two leaders in any room with children. In cases where this is not possible, refer to the Open Door Policy.
- Open Doors – When only one adult leader is in the room, the classroom door should remain open. Window doors let ministry supervisors look in without interrupting the class.
- Family Protection – If immediate family members want to minister together in the same classroom, they will be counted as one volunteer for the purpose of child/teacher ratios. Refer to the Open Door Policy if they are the only people in the room.
- Age Expectation – One adult volunteer age 18 or over is recommended.
 - Volunteers who are between the ages of 12 and 17 must be paired with an adult.
 - Teenage assistants will be screened but will not be required to provide a police clearance.
- Supervisors will visit the classroom regularly to ensure that the class is sufficiently staffed, and the above policies maintained.

Check-in and Check-out Procedures:

- All families, including visitors, are required to check-in through the automated attendance system (new families can be checked in at the registration desk)
 - Checked-in children will receive a nametag and alphanumeric code. Children are to wear this nametag at all times.
 - Parents or guardians will receive a matching alphanumeric code. Leaders will confirm that children are picked up by a parent or guardian with the matching code
 - Class lists are accessible through the classroom tablet (via the automated attendance software). Teachers should always have the class list with them and make sure it is accurate
 - Teachers should sign children out on the tablet as they are picked up
- In the absence of the automated attendance system a manual sign-in and sign-out procedure will be used
- The Kid's Camp program will use a manual sign in/out procedure requiring parents or guardians to sign their child(ren) in and out.

Identification:

- All volunteers working with children must wear their HPAC nametag, which identifies them to parents and newcomers.
- All children shall also wear nametags.
- Nametags are used to indicate health concerns or food allergies.
 - A 140-character description can be found on the nametag
- Medical Alert Postings are posted in each classroom. The child's picture and details of pertinent health concerns are listed on each poster.

Washroom and Changing Guidelines:

- Nursery – Diaper changing stations must be visible by one other volunteer during a changing. All parental requests regarding diaper changing should be respected.
- Preschool – Please be sure to advise parents to take their children to the washroom prior to programming (signs shall be posted to remind all families and inform newcomers).
- The washroom door must be propped open when the volunteer takes a child to the washroom. The volunteer must wait for the child outside the door before leading the child back to class. The volunteer shall not be alone with a child in an unsupervised washroom. A volunteer may enter the washroom cubicle to assist a child if the following conditions are met:
 - A second adult is a witness
 - The outside washroom door is propped open and the adult is standing in the open cubicle doorway
 - Diapers shall not be changed in the preschool classrooms, if the need arises, parents must be contacted.
- Elementary – Do not send children to the washroom alone, a volunteer shall go with them but need not enter the washroom.
 - If the child needs assistance a volunteer may enter the washroom cubicle with a child if the following conditions are met:
 - A second adult is a witness
 - The outside washroom door is propped open and the adult is standing in the open cubicle doorway

Displays of Affection:

Love can be easily communicated through physical touching such as a hug, but our volunteers need to remain professional and know where physical boundaries begin and end. It's important to consider differences in sexual development, cultural differences, family backgrounds, individual personalities, and special needs. Contact with children must be age and developmentally appropriate. We consider the following to be positive displays of love:

- Making eye contact with the child and listening with your eyes as well as your ears
- Holding the child's hand when speaking, listening or walking them to an activity
- When comforting or quieting is needed, the volunteer may place their arm around the child's shoulder
- To show affirmation, pat a child on the head, hand or shoulder gently

- If you need to redirect a child's behaviour gently hold the child's shoulder, hand or chin to keep their attention
- It is permissible to hold a preschool child who is crying
- All touch should be done in view of others

- The following we consider inappropriate touch:
 - Kissing or coaxing a child to kiss you
 - Extended hugging and/or tickling
 - Touching a child in any area that would be covered by a bathing suit except when assisting a child with toileting as outlined previously
 - Carrying an older child or having them sit on your lap
 - Prolonged physical contact.

Discipline and Classroom Management:

God's idea of discipline is detailed in Hebrew 12:7-11. The word 'discipline' should not be synonymous with 'punishment'; rather its origin from the root word disciple implies the correct meaning: training that molds character, behaviour, and values. Rather than seeking to merely maintain control or keep children quiet, our goal in managing children's behaviour must be to shape their character in such a way that they will become disciples.

- Preventative Discipline shall be used prior to inappropriate behaviour. The following actions are encouraged:
 - Create a loving, caring environment
 - Arrange the atmosphere for children and for learning
 - Give respect
 - Establish and communicate realistic expectations for the children
 - Be sure the activities provided are meaningful and age- appropriate
 - Be fair and consistent
 - Be sure to focus on positive actions
 - Be aware of children with special needs.

Remedial Discipline shall be used after the child exhibits inappropriate behaviour. The following actions may be taken:

- Deal with the problems individually
- Explain to the child why the behaviour is unacceptable
- Redirect the child to positive action
- Explain the consequences of unacceptable behaviour. Children may be given a 2-minute time out or the ministry leader may be summoned
- Any concerns regarding a child's behaviour shall only be addressed to the parents through the Pastor/Director of Children's Ministries or the Camp Director

Architectural Precautions:

- Windows and Doors – Parents and supervisors can easily see into the classrooms through door windows. Sight lines through these windows shall not be blocked.
- Plug covers must be used on all electrical outlets

Health and Safety Guidelines:

- Sick Children – A child who is sick and could infect other children and workers should not be accepted into the nursery or classroom. Some signs of illness may be: unusual exhaustion or irritability, coughing, sneezing, runny nose and eyes, fever, vomiting, diarrhea, inflamed mouth or throat, or a known infectious disease.
- Medications – Should a child require any medication; the parents should administer the medication. The Pastor/Director of Children’s Ministries or Kids’ Camp should administer the medication if a parent is not available
- Be sure medication is not left in the classroom. Inform parents that medication must be left with the Pastor/Director of Children’s Ministries or Kids’ Camp.
- In cases where Epi-pens and puffers are needed for allergies or asthma, arrangements should be made with written instructions from the parent to the Pastor/Director of Children’s Ministries or Kids’ Camp.
- Volunteers may apply baby powder and ointments during diaper changing if directed by the parents to do so.

Emergencies:

- All staff shall be kept current with various emergency policies (yearly review)
- One first aid kit is available in the Children’s Ministries Resource Room in the cupboard labeled emergency kit. The other first aid kit is available on the table outside the Large Group space.
- An incident report must be filled out for all accidents resulting in injury. The Pastor/Director of Children’s Ministries or Kids’ Camp shall inform parents. No attempt shall be made to handle anything more serious than the volunteer is trained for, seek assistance. Please make a note of materials used so they may be replenished.
- Incident reports can be received from the Pastor/Director of Children’s Ministries or the appointed Supervisor
- Any injuries involving blood shall be handled according to the following steps:
 - Separate the injured child from the other children. Isolate the area where any blood may have dropped on carpet, toys, etc. The Pastor/Director shall be summoned.
 - Check to ensure that no other children had contact with any of the blood from the wound
 - Put on medical gloves available from the first aid kit and bandage the injury, avoiding contact with mouth, ears and eyes.
 - Carefully wipe up all blood and bloody bandages and remove to a secure waste removal receptacle along with gloves.
 - Wash hands carefully with sterilizing soap.

Fire, Tornado, Dangerous Intruder, or Power Outage:

Fire:

- Teachers and staff are to assure the quick and orderly exit of all students and attendees.
- There are two emergency exits in Children's Ministries. Refer to the map in your attendance binder for the exits nearest your class.
- Teachers must always have their attendance book with them. Teachers and staff are to take classes to the muster station (south-east parking lot at the corner of Alliance St. and Sixth Concession). Classes are to line up according to the age/grade and behind the teacher.
- Once there, the teacher shall take attendance ensuring all students are accounted for. Report any unaccounted students to any leadership immediately.
- No one shall re-enter the building until the "All Clear" signal has been given.
- No students or child shall be released to a parent without the parent signing for the child. Parent release forms will be provided.
- Tornado – Teachers and staff are to move students and attendees away from the outside classrooms with windows to interior classrooms or hallways.
- Teachers must always have their attendance book with them.
- Once relocated, the teacher shall take attendance.
- Remain in relocation area until "All Clear" is given.
- No students or child shall be released to a parent without the parents signing for the child. Parent release forms shall be provided.

Dangerous Intruder:

- Teachers and staff are to move students and attendees away from the doors and windows to interior corners or closets.
- Teachers must always have their attendance book with them.
- Once relocated, the teacher shall take attendance and encourage the kids to remain as quiet as possible.
- Remain in relocation area until "All Clear" is given.
- No students or child shall be released to a parent without the parents signing for the child. Parent release forms shall be provided.

Power Outage:

- Teachers and children shall remain in the classrooms and await direction from supervisory staff. Many times, the power will immediately return as we have a back-up generator. Flashlights and emergency lighting will be used.
- If an extended outage, upon notice from supervisory staff, teachers and staff are to move students and attendees to the Centre. Teachers must have their attendance books with them.
- Any class that has had to relocate, teachers and nursery workers are required to take attendance. Report any unaccounted children to the Pastor/Director immediately.

- Parents in the main service will be advised of the evacuation location and will be released to pick up their children.
- No students or child shall be released to a parent without the parents signing for the child. Parent release forms shall be provided
